

Agenda: Monday, June 27, 2011 Sheraton Palo Alto Hotel

Day #1 Outcomes:

- Recognition of our progress to date and areas of challenge related to work with student outcomes
- Deeper understanding of how emerging state policy relates to student outcomes and assessment and may impact the Linked Learning District Initiative
- Initial ideas for authentically measuring student progress toward a 21st Century cross-disciplinary outcome

10:00 a.m.

Breakout Rooms

Cross-District Role-Alike Networking Meetings

11:30

Reception Room

Registration

11:45

Lunch Buffet Served

12:00 p.m.

Reception Room

Lunch and Opening: Framing our Work Together

- Welcome (Erik Rice, Senior Associate, SCOPE: Stanford Center for Opportunity Policy in Education)
- Celebrations and Implications (Anne Stanton, Program Director, The James Irvine Foundation)
- District Initiative Progress (Roneeta Guha, Research Analyst, SRI International)
- Bridge from 2010/11 to 2011/12 (Brad Stam, Vice President, ConnectEd)

1:10

Reception Room

Keynote Address

Dr. Michael Kirst, President of the California Board of Education & Professor Emeritus of Education and Business Administration at Stanford University

- Presentation: College & Career Readiness: State Policy Impact on the Linked Learning District Initiative
- Q/A, Team Discussion, and Debrief

2:00

Reception Room

Summer Institute Overview

2:15

Break

2:30

Assigned
breakout rooms

District Team Planning Session #1: Setting the Stage for Establishing a System of Performance-Based Assessment of Student Learning Outcomes

- Focusing on one student outcome
- Defining a goal to help guide the next few days
- Organizing initial data-gathering

4:30

Break/Phone-a-Friend

5:30

Piazza Courtyard

An Evening of Celebration: District Exhibitions

6:15

Justines Room

Network Dinner Hosted by the James Irvine Foundation

- Welcome (Gary Hoachlander, President, ConnectEd)
- 2011-12 Priorities for the District Initiative (Roman Stearns, Director for Leadership Development, ConnectEd)

Agenda: Tuesday, June 28, 2011

Stanford University: d.school

Day #2 Outcomes:

- Increased capacity to integrate design principles into district reform
- A set of emerging strategies for addressing essential stakeholder needs connected to the assessment of a 21st Century cross-disciplinary outcome

7:00 a.m.

Justines Room

Breakfast at Sheraton Hotel

- District teams share their goal

8:00

Shuttles to Stanford University

8:30

d.school Atrium

Introduction to Institute of Design (d.school) and Overview of the Day

8:45

Studios TBD

d.school 201 Workshop

- Design Thinking Review/Simulation
- Application to performance assessment and student outcomes

10:20

Break

10:35

Assigned district breakout studios

District Team Planning Session #2: Applying Empathy Mindset.

- Focus on specific stakeholder(s) and needs
- Defining the challenge/problem
- Develop "How might we" questions

11:45

d.school courtyard

Pizza Lunch

- Optional tour of d.school
- Time to explore Stanford campus

1:15

d.school Atrium

Setting up the Afternoon

1:30

Return to d.school studios

District Team Planning Session #3: Developing Initial Strategies

- Brainstorming
- Developing potential ways to address user needs
- Testing and iterating

3:05

Break

3:15

Networking Jigsaw

- Share initial thinking with thought partners

4:00

Depart for Shuttles (Dinner on your own)

Agenda: Wednesday, June 29, 2011 Sheraton Palo Alto Hotel

Day #3 Outcomes:

- Increased capacity to integrate design principles & change management strategies into district reform
- A set of action steps for systemically and authentically measuring student progress toward a 21st Century cross-disciplinary outcome
- Articulation of possible connections to other priority areas of the California Linked Learning District Initiative

7:30

Reception Room

Breakfast

8:00

Reception Room

Overview of the Day

8:15

Assigned
breakout rooms

District Team Planning Session #4: Selecting Prototype/Strategy for Planning

- Meet in separate Design Groups to review feedback and synthesize new ideas
- Regroup as a full district team to share ideas and determine what will move forward

9:45

Break

10:00

Reception Room

Workshop: Human-Centered Implementation & Lessons Learned (Kaiser Innovation Team)

Bobby Hughes, Senior Designer and Innovation Consult & Mike Lin, Senior Design Strategist

- The Kaiser Story: Use of design thinking to build powerful prototype.
- Table Discussions: Making connections to Kaiser experience
- Kaiser Learning around Implementation: Integration of Change Management with Design Thinking
- Table Discussions: Reactions to the Kaiser experience
- Q & A

11:30

Poolside

Transition to Team Time – Pick up Lunch

11:45

Return to assigned breakout rooms

District Team Planning Session #5 (Including a Working Lunch)

- Implications of Kaiser lessons to our current work
- Implementation of our Prototype/Strategy
- System Level Considerations and Connections

2:30

Reception Room

Real Impact: A Student Perspective

3:00

Reception Room

Bringing the Network Together

- Team report out: Synthesis of lessons learned
- Review 2011-12 Leadership Development Series
- Key questions to consider
- Summer Institute Evaluation

3:15 p.m.

Have a great summer!